Making a Difference: The Role of the National Native Title Tribunal

Wednesday 9 March 2016 | 6-7pm followed by refreshments

Ms Raelene Webb QC holds a Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Physics from the University of Adelaide and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Queensland. She was admitted to the Supreme Court of the Northern Territory and the High Court of Australia in 1992. In 2004, she was appointed Queens Counsel. Prior to her five year appointment on 1 April 2013 by the Attorney General, as President of the National Native Title Tribunal (NNTT), Raelene was named as one of the leading native title silks in Australia. She has appeared as lead counsel in many native title and Aboriginal land matters. Ms Webb has also advised upon and appeared in the High Court in most land-mark cases on the judicial interpretation and development of native title/Aboriginal land law since the decision of Mabo v Queensland (No 2).

She was a recipient of the 2014 Law Council of Australia President’s Medal, in recognition of her outstanding contribution to the legal profession in Australia.

Venue: The University of Notre Dame Australia
Michael Keating Room (ND42) Cnr Cliff & High Streets, Fremantle

RSVP: Pam Meehan on 9433 0741 or email pam.meehan@nd.edu.au

The School of Law’s Eminent Speakers Series involves recognised experts speaking on contemporary legal and professional matters. Lectures presented as part of the series are free of charge and are open to members of the School of Law, the University and the general public.