The Honourable David Malcolm AC QC CitWA (1938 – 2014)

The Honourable David Malcolm was a highly distinguished member of the legal profession. He graduated with an LLB from The University of Western Australia in 1959 and in 1960 he was the Rhodes Scholar for Western Australia. In 1962 he obtained his BCL from Oxford University with first class honours. He was admitted to legal practice in 1964 practising in various areas of law particularly commercial and corporate law, and mining, media, shipping and administrative law.

He was President of the Bar Association of Western Australia from 1982 to 1984 and held the position of Vice-President of the Australian Bar Association in 1984. In 2006 he was awarded the honour of life-member of the Australian Bar Association. During his years of legal practice, he was actively engaged in various organisations including serving as chair of the Town Planning Appeals Tribunal (1979-1986) and the Law Reform Commission (1979-1982).

He was appointed the 12th Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Western Australia in 1988, a position he held and served with distinction until his retirement from the bench in 2006. During his time as Chief Justice he served as patron, vice-patron and trustee of numerous organisations including President of the Scouts Association Board, Trustee for Youth at Fairbridge Inc., Chairman of the Special Airborne Services Trust and Trustee of the Francis Burt Law Education Centre and Museum.

His exemplary professional, civic and community work has been recognised and honoured nationally and internationally. In 1990 he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Western Australia and in 1992 he was made a Companion of the Order of Australia. In 1999 he was elected as an Honorary Bencher of Lincoln's Inn, London. In 2000 he was awarded the Honour of Citizen of the Year in Western Australia in the category of the Professions.

On retirement from the bench in 2006, he was appointed as Professor of Law in the School of Law (Fremantle) at The University of Notre Dame Australia until 2010, and as Adjunct Professor from 2011.
