Dr. Ben Myers
Wisdom’s Children: Biblical Proverbs and Western Culture

Abstract

Ben is currently completing a book titled Wisdom’s Children: Biblical Proverbs and Western Culture. The book argues that biblical proverbs have played a surprisingly significant role in the development of western literary traditions. It explores the way the book of Proverbs has informed diverse styles of monastic writing, religious poetry, satirical literature, and revolutionary poetry. He will be presenting a sample from one of the chapters of this book.

Date: Wednesday 7th October, 2015 (Semester 2, Week 10)
Time: 12.30 pm – 1.30 pm
Venue: Directors’ Boardroom, Pioneer House (NDS5-402)

For further enquiries please email ies@nd.edu.au

Speaker

Dr. Ben Myers is lecturer in systematic theology at Charles Sturt University’s School of Theology in North Parramatta. His publications include Milton’s Theology of Freedom (2006), Christ the Stranger: The Theology of Rowan Williams (2012), and Salvation in My Pocket (2013).