STATUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Background

The University of Notre Dame Australia was established as a statutory body corporate by The University of Notre Dame Australia Act which was enacted by the Parliament of Western Australia on the twenty-first day of December 1989 and proclaimed on the twenty-sixth day of January 1990.

The University of Notre Dame Australia was established under canon law as a public collegial juridical person by a proclamation of the Administrator of the Archdiocese of Perth dated the second day of July 1991.

The Objects of the University set out in section 5 of its Act of Parliament are:

- (a) the provision of university education, within a context of Catholic faith and values; and
- (b) the provision of an excellent standard of –
 - (i) teaching, scholarship and research;
 - (ii) training for the professions; and
 - (iii) pastoral care for its students.

Division 1 – Preamble

1 Reference

- 1.1 These Statutes will be referred to as “The Statutes of The University of Notre Dame Australia”.
- 1.2 Any reference in these Statutes to “the Act” is a reference to The University of Notre Dame Australia Act 1989.
- 1.3 Any reference in these Statutes to “the Canonical Proclamation” is a reference to the proclamation of the Administrator of the Archdiocese of Perth dated the second day of July 1991

2 Authority

- 2.1 These Statutes are made under the authority of Section 20 of The University of Notre Dame Australia Act 1989 and all other enabling powers.

3 Commencement of Statutes

- 3.1 These Statutes have effect from 18 February 2013.

4 Revocation of previous Statutes

- 4.1 All statutes of the University made prior to the commencement of these Statutes are revoked.
- 4.2 The validity of transactions, appointments and instruments made under statutes revoked by these Statutes is not affected by that revocation.

Division 2 – Trustees

5 Responsibilities of the Board of Trustees

- 5.1 Subject to the Act, the Canonical Proclamation and Statutes, the Trustees are responsible for:
- (i) protecting and preserving the Catholic objects and nature of the University;
 - (ii) electing a Chancellor and Deputy Chancellor of the University from among their number;
 - (iii) appointing the Trustees of the University;
 - (iv) nominating to the Board of Directors a person to be appointed as Vice Chancellor and determining the terms and conditions of the appointment;
 - (v) appointing members of the Board of Directors;
 - (vi) appointing members of the Board of Governors;
 - (vii) approving the sale or disposal of major assets of the University; and
 - (viii) making rules relevant to the University.
- 5.2 The Trustees will commission external audits to measure the extent of the University's fidelity to its mission as a Catholic university, consistent with the principles of Ex Corde Ecclesiae, or a successor Apostolic Constitution. The Trustees:
- (i) will complete the first audit no later than 1 January 2013 and undertake subsequent audits at least every ten years after that date.
 - (ii) will obtain the consent of each of the Bishops of Perth, Broome and Sydney concerning the membership of the audit team and the terms of reference proposed by the Trustees for the audit of the campus in their respective dioceses.
 - (iii) will provide the Bishops of Perth, Broome and Sydney with a copy of the audit report and request their comments on the report.
 - (iv) acknowledge that any decisions on matters raised in the report following any audit are matters entirely for the Trustees.
- 5.3 Any changes or amendments to Statute 5 or to any other Statute that deals with the powers or responsibilities vested in the Trustees by the Act or the Statutes shall not take effect unless it is approved by a resolution of the Trustees.

Division 3 – Board of Directors and Board of Governors

6 The Board of Directors

- 6.1 The Board of Directors is the governing body of the University, and, except where the Act otherwise provides and subject to the role of the Trustees as specified in Statute 5, exercises all the powers of the University and has entire control and management of the affairs and concerns of the University.
- 6.2 The Board of Directors consists of not more than 14 persons consisting of:
- (i) the Chancellor (ex officio);
 - (ii) the Vice Chancellor (ex officio); and
 - (iii) up to 12 other members who are:
 - (a) members of the Board of Governors; and
 - (b) appointed by the Trustees to be members of the Board of Directors on the nomination of a committee comprising the Chancellor, the Deputy Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor.

7 Functions and duties of the Board of Directors

- 7.1 Without limiting Statute 6, the Board of Directors:
- (i) preserves and fosters the essential character of the University as a Catholic university;
 - (ii) appoints the Vice Chancellor of the University upon the nomination of the Trustees, and monitors the performance of the Vice Chancellor as the chief executive officer of the University;
 - (iii) approves the mission and strategic planning of the University;
 - (iv) approves the annual budget and business plan of the University;
 - (v) oversees and reviews the management and performance of the University;
 - (vi) approves and modifies the operation of Statutes, by-laws and regulations of the University and establishes policy and procedural principles relating to the operations of the Board of Directors and its committees which are consistent with legal requirements and community expectations;
 - (vii) approves and monitors policies and systems of control, accountability, governance, planning and organisation of the University including controlled entities (if any);
 - (viii) oversees and monitors and approves policy relating to the assessment and management of risk across the University, including health and safety and commercial undertakings;
 - (ix) approves significant commercial activities of the University; and
 - (x) delegates its powers in accordance with the Act.
- 7.2 In exercising their powers and performing their functions, the Board of Directors, collectively and individually shall comply with those duties and responsibilities placed on to them under Section 15C of the Act and any other duties which may be imposed on them under any other law.

8 Delegation by the Board of Directors

- 8.1 The Board of Directors may delegate their powers or duties to any committee or officer of the University in accordance with Section 16 of the Act.

9 Meetings of the Board of Directors

- 9.1 Meetings of the Board of Directors are conducted in accordance with Standing Orders approved and amended by a resolution carried by no less than two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors.
- 9.2 The University Secretary acts as Secretary at meetings of the Board of Directors.

10 Board of Governors

- 10.1 There is to be a Board of Governors of the University consisting of:
- (i) the Trustees; and
 - (ii) at least 18 other persons as may from time to time be appointed by the Trustees.
- 10.2 The function of the Board of Governors is to provide advice and support to the Board of Directors.

Division 4 – Statutes, By-Laws and Regulations

11 Statutes

- 11.1 The Board of Directors makes Statutes by a resolution carried by no less than two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors.
- 11.2 Statutes made by the Board of Directors must be:
- (i) entered in a register of instruments maintained by the University Secretary; and
 - (ii) published on the University's website.
- 11.3 Statutes made by the Board of Directors apply to and are binding on all officers, staff members and students of the University.

12 By-laws and regulations

- 12.1 The Board of Directors may make by-laws or regulations by a resolution carried by a majority of its members.
- 12.2 By-laws or regulations made by the Board of Directors must be:
- (i) entered in a register of instruments maintained by the University Secretary; and
 - (ii) published on the University's website.
- 12.3 A by-law or regulation that conflicts with a Statute of the University is of no effect.
- 12.4 Where a regulation applies to the whole University it is referred to as a General Regulation.
- 12.5 By-laws and regulations made by the Board apply to and are binding on all officers, staff members and students of the University.

13 Certain matters to be dealt with only by Statute

- 13.1 Any provision that:
- (i) concerns the office, duties or powers of the Vice Chancellor;
 - (ii) concerns the office, duties or powers of any of the principal officers of the University set out in these Statutes;
 - (iii) concerns the custody or use of the common seal of the University; or
 - (iv) concerns the governance structure of the University;
- must be made by Statute and not by regulation or by-law.

14 Delegated power to make by-laws and regulations

- 14.1 The Board of Directors may disallow any by-law or regulation made under delegated or sub delegated authority by a resolution carried by a majority of its members.

14.2 Subject to Section 16 of the Act and to these Statutes the Board of Directors hereby delegates the power to make by-laws and regulations to the Vice Chancellor.

Division 5 – Principal Officers of the University

15 Principal Officers

15.1 The principal officers of the University from time to time are:

- (i) the Vice Chancellor;
- (ii) the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor;
- (iii) the Deputy Vice Chancellors;
- (iv) the University Secretary;
- (v) the Chief Financial Officer;
- (vi) the Pro Vice Chancellors, and such other officers as are appointed principal officers of the University in accordance with the terms of these Statutes.

15.2 The principal officers have a special responsibility to promote and protect the Catholic identity and mission of the University.

16 Office of the Vice Chancellor

16.1 The Vice Chancellor is chief executive officer and academic principal of the University.

17 Appointment of the Vice Chancellor

17.1 The Vice Chancellor is appointed by the Board of Directors upon the nomination of the Trustees and holds office at the pleasure of the Trustees upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees from time to time determine.

18 Removal of the Vice Chancellor from Office

18.1 The Vice Chancellor may be removed from office for good cause and on the grounds that such action is required for the welfare of the University. Such removal requires a resolution carried by a two-thirds majority of all Trustees of the University following consultation with the Board of Directors.

19 Powers of the Vice Chancellor

19.1 The Vice Chancellor has such powers and duties as may be:

- (i) necessary, incidental or convenient to enable him or her to carry out the responsibilities of Vice Chancellor;
- (ii) conferred on him or her by the Act, any rule, by-law, statute or regulation of the University; or
- (iii) delegated to or conferred on him or her by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

20 Duties of the Vice Chancellor

20.1 Subject to the Act and any rules, Statutes, by-laws and regulations of the University the Vice Chancellor is responsible for:

- (i) preserving and fostering the essential character of the University as a Catholic University;
- (ii) managing the academic, administrative, financial and other affairs of the University;
- (iii) leadership, management and development of the University; and
- (iv) representing the University before the public.

20.2 Without limiting the generality of the powers and duties conferred by Statute 20.1 and subject to the guidelines set by the Board of Directors, the Vice Chancellor has the delegated authority to:

- (i) appoint, promote and dismiss staff, determine their remuneration, conditions of service, powers and duties, and determine University policies on these matters;
- (ii) exercise general supervision over the activities and welfare of members of the staff and students of the University and over the academic affairs of the University;
- (iii) determine and establish the Management Structure of the University and make such amendments as are from time to time required to ensure that the affairs of the University are managed effectively and responsibly;
- (iv) approve, on behalf of the Board of Directors, the awarding of degrees, diplomas and awards to enrolled students who have attained standards approved by Boards of Examiners;
- (v) formulate the University budget for submission to the Board of Directors for approval;
- (vi) manage the human, financial and physical resources of the University;
- (vii) determine University policy, including but not limited to policy on:
 - A. use of site and facilities of the University;
 - B. research (on the advice and recommendation of the Research Committee); and
 - C. academic issues (on the advice and recommendation of the Academic Council).
- (viii) incur expenditure up to a limit set by the Board of Directors on items for which budgetary provision has been made;
- (ix) prepare the strategic plan of the University for consideration by the Board of Directors;
- (x) establish and maintain an efficient and effective management structure for the University;
- (xi) establish committees on such terms as he or she sees fit to advise on specific aspects relating to the management of the academic, administrative, financial and other affairs of the University;
- (xii) sign documents for and on behalf of the University in situations where the Common Seal is not required to be affixed;
- (xiii) ensure the implementation of the Statutes, By-laws, Regulations, Rules and policies of the University, and compliance with the responsibilities and obligations required by State and

- Commonwealth legislation; and
- (xiv) make any decision or take any action on behalf of the Board of Directors where the Vice Chancellor and Chancellor agree that the decision is urgent and requires immediate action and that it is not practicable to convene a special meeting of the Board of Directors, provided that where this power is exercised the use of the power shall be reported to the Board of Directors as soon as possible, and endorsement of the action taken shall be sought from the Board of Directors at its next meeting.

21 Board of Directors may direct the Vice Chancellor

- 21.1 Subject to the Act and any rules, Statutes, by-laws and regulations of the University, the Board of Directors may by resolution direct the Vice Chancellor in the performance of his or her duties.

22 Delegation by the Vice Chancellor

- 22.1 The Vice Chancellor may delegate in writing, any of his or her powers, duties and responsibilities (except this power of delegation) to another person or committee of the University.

23 Vice Chancellor is a member of Committees

- 23.1 Except where it specifically states otherwise in these Statutes, the Vice Chancellor is ex officio a member of every Board, Committee, Centre or Council of the University.

24 Absence or disability of the Vice Chancellor

- 24.1 If for any reason the Vice Chancellor is to be absent or is unable to act for less than one month, the Vice Chancellor will appoint another senior member of the staff of the University to act as Vice Chancellor.
- 24.2 If for any reason the Vice Chancellor is to be absent or is unable to act for more than one month, the Board of Directors shall, on the nomination of the Trustees, appoint a person to act as Vice Chancellor.

25 Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor

- 25.1 The Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor is the deputy of the Vice Chancellor and, subject to the overall leadership of the Vice Chancellor, is the senior academic officer of the University.
- 25.2 The Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor, in his or her capacity as senior academic officer, provides academic leadership throughout the University, including promotion and development of the University's academic mission and goals and its status as a Catholic University.
- 25.3 Except where it specifically states otherwise in these Statutes, the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor is ex officio a member of every academic committee of the University.
- 25.4 The Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor is to be based on the Sydney Campus and, subject to the overall leadership of the Vice Chancellor, is the senior officer of the University on that campus.

26 Deputy Vice Chancellors

The Deputy Vice Chancellors, subject to the overall leadership of the Vice Chancellor and the academic leadership of the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor, assist the Vice Chancellor and Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor in the management of the University and/or for the particular responsibilities and duties assigned and delegated to them by the Vice Chancellor from time to time.

27 Secretary of the University

27.1 The duties of the Secretary of the University are to:

- (i) act as secretary to the Trustees of the University;
- (ii) act as secretary to the Board of Directors;
- (iii) act as secretary to the Board of Governors;
- (iv) have custody of and affix as authorised by these Statutes the Common Seal of the University; and
- (v) discharge such other duties as may be determined by the Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors.

28 Chief Financial Officer

28.1 The duties of the Chief Financial Officer are to oversee and manage all aspects of the University's finances including:

- (i) supervising and preparing the annual budget for the University to present, through the Vice Chancellor, to the Board of Directors for approval;
- (ii) overseeing and managing the funding arrangements of the University with its financiers;
- (iii) overseeing the preparation of all financial reports, including the annual report of the University, as required under the Act;
- (iv) liaising with, where appropriate, the Deputy Vice Chancellors, Pro Vice Chancellors and Heads of Campus in relation to the financial management of each Campus;
- (v) liaising, where appropriate, with government departments and instrumentalities regarding the University's finances and allocations of public monies;
- (vi) advising the Vice Chancellor and the Board of Directors on the financial position of the University and actions which should be taken to advance its position; and
- (vii) undertaking such other duties as the Vice Chancellor or the Board of Directors may determine.

29 Pro Vice Chancellors

29.1 The Pro Vice Chancellors assist the Vice Chancellor, Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor and Deputy Vice Chancellors and have responsibility and duties in those areas that are assigned to them by the Vice Chancellor.

30 Designation, Appointment and Removal of further Principal Officers

30.1 The Vice Chancellor may, with the confirmation of the Board of Directors, appoint such other officers as principal officers of the University.

30.2 A principal officer of the University may be removed from office by the Vice Chancellor, with the confirmation of the Board of Directors, on the grounds that such action is required for the welfare of the University.

31 Concurrent holding of Office

31.1 Any two or more principal offices of the University may be held at the same time by one person.

Division 6 – Campuses of the University

32 Campuses of the University

- 32.1 The University may conduct its activities (in whole or in part) at the following campuses:
- (i) a Campus in Fremantle, Western Australia that is known as the Fremantle Campus;
 - (ii) a Campus in Broome, Western Australia that is known as the Broome Campus; and
 - (iii) a Campus in Sydney, New South Wales that is known as the Sydney Campus.
- 32.2 The Vice Chancellor may appoint a principal officer or other staff member of the University as “Head of Campus”. A Head of Campus shall exercise and perform such powers, authorities, functions and duties as are conferred, required or delegated to him or her by the Vice Chancellor or under these Statutes from time to time.
- 32.3 The office of “Head of Campus” may be held by a staff member in addition to, or concurrently with, other duties, responsibilities or offices and may report to any principal officer as determined from time to time by the Vice Chancellor or under these statutes.

33 The role of the Broome Campus

- 33.1 The special mission of the Broome Campus is to advance Indigenous people and to promote reconciliation between the Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples of Australia.
- 33.2 The responsibility for academic and Vocational Education Training courses conducted on the Broome Campus shall be the joint responsibility of the Head of the Broome Campus and the Deans of the relevant Schools operating on the Fremantle Campus. The Deans of the Schools on the Fremantle Campus must act in conjunction with the Head of the Broome Campus for all aspects of the academic planning and conduct of those courses on the Broome Campus.
- 33.3 Academic staff members of the Broome Campus are members of the academic staff of the School on the Fremantle Campus with which their courses or units are associated, but the day to day management and coordination of the academic staff members of the Broome Campus is the responsibility of the Head of the Broome Campus.

Division 7 – Committees

34 Standing Committees of the University

- 34.1 The Board of Directors may establish such Standing Committees of the University as it thinks fit.
- 34.2 A Standing Committee of the University is composed of such members of the Board of Directors and such officers of the University and other persons as the Board of Directors and the Vice Chancellor think fit.
- 34.3 A Standing Committee of the University exercises such powers as may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors, but the Board of Directors reserves the right to override such exercise of power by a resolution carried by a majority of its members.
- 34.4 A Standing Committee of the University reports to the Board of Directors through the Vice Chancellor unless otherwise provided in these Statutes or in the resolution constituting the Standing Committee.
- 34.5 The Chair of each Standing Committee must ensure that copies of agendas and minutes are promptly provided to the Vice Chancellor and that an annual report on the operation of the Standing Committee is provided to the Vice Chancellor (at a time and in such form as agreed with the Vice Chancellor) to allow reporting to the Board of Directors.
- 34.6 Subject to any prohibition, limitation or additional requirements contained within these Statutes, a Standing Committee of the University may appoint such sub-committees, determine their terms of reference and delegate such powers, responsibilities and duties to such sub committees as it deems appropriate.
- 34.7 Decisions of a Standing Committee and its sub committees are made by a simple majority of the members and in the event of an equality of votes the chairperson may exercise a casting vote.
- 34.8 Unless otherwise stated herein, the quorum for meetings of a Standing Committee and its sub committees is one half of its members.

35 Academic Council

- 35.1 The University has an Academic Council which is the primary Academic Committee of the University. The Academic Council is a Standing Committee of the University and reports and is accountable through the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor to the Vice Chancellor.
- 35.2 Academic Council meetings are chaired by a senior academic staff member appointed by the Vice Chancellor on the recommendation of the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor.
- 35.3 The Academic Council consists of:
- (i) the Chair;
 - (ii) two Deputy Chairs (from members)
 - (iii) the Deans (from each Campus);
 - (iv) the Academic Registrar;
 - (v) an academic representative from the Broome Campus;

- (vi) the Pro Vice Chancellor, Research;
- (vii) the Pro Vice Chancellor, Academic;
- (viii) the Vice Chancellor and Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor (ex officio); and
- (ix) such other academic officers of the University (including Heads of Campus) as may be appointed by the Vice Chancellor on the recommendation of the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor.

35.4 Other officers and staff of the University may attend meetings of the Academic Council at the invitation of the Chair and may include (but not be limited to):

- (i) the University Librarian; and/or
- (ii) the Pro Vice Chancellors.

35.5 (Chairing of meetings) in the absence of the Chair, meetings will be chaired by one of the two deputy chairs appointed by the Chair for that meeting.

35.6 (Number of meetings) At least four regular meetings of the Academic Council will be held in each University year.

35.7 (Quorum) A quorum for any meeting of the Academic Council will be greater in number than half of the members in office at the time of the meeting.

35.8 (Participation by telephone/audio visual) Members of the Academic Council may participate in meetings by the use of audio or audio visual facilities and are deemed to be present for the count of the quorum.

35.9 (Record of meeting) The Academic Council will keep a record of its resolutions, recommendations and action items.

35.10 Subject to Statute 35.11, the Academic Council has the determinative power to approve:

- (i) the academic content and standard of units and courses (both new and existing);
- (ii) the assessment in units and courses (both new and existing);
- (iii) the criteria for graduation from degrees (both new and existing), and will report on its decisions through the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor to the Vice Chancellor. The determinative powers of the Academic Council do not extend to setting enrolment quotas or entry or admission standards.

35.11 The Academic Council has the power and responsibility to advise and make recommendations through the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor to the Vice Chancellor and the Board of Directors on matters including:

- (i) the formation of general academic policies and procedures including those relating to teaching, learning, professional training and graduation of students;
- (ii) the formulation and review of regulations (including the General Regulations and any Campus, Schools, Course or Research Degree Regulations) applying to admission, enrolment, credit, assessment, examination, termination, graduation or other regulations of an academic nature;

- (iii) the oversight of formal and regular programs of review of academic activities in accordance with the relevant policy in place from time to time and the provision of advice to the Vice Chancellor on appropriate academic professional development requirements;
- (iv) relevant matters arising from debate and discussion on significant academic issues concerning the University and the wider academic community; and
- (v) any matter referred to it by the Vice Chancellor.

35.12 All sub-committees of Academic Council report through the Academic Council to the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor.

35.13 Any advice or recommendation of the Academic Council to the Vice Chancellor is subject to the approval of the Vice Chancellor who, in his or her discretion, may approve or reject (in whole or in part), amend, or refer back to Academic Council for further consideration. The Vice Chancellor may also, in his or her discretion, refer any recommendation or advice received from the Academic Council to the Board of Directors for their consideration.

36 Academic Council Sub-Committee – Unit and Course Accreditation

36.1 The University has a Unit and Course Accreditation Committee which is a sub-committee of the Academic Council.

36.2 The Unit and Course Accreditation Committee is chaired by a senior academic staff member appointed by the Vice Chancellor on the recommendation of the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor.

36.3 The Unit and Course Accreditation Committee consists of:

- (i) the Chair;
- (ii) the Deputy Chair – appointed by the Pro Vice Chancellor, Academic from among the members.
- (iii) two members of Academic Council, nominated by Academic Council;
- (iv) the Academic Registrar;
- (v) the Pro Vice Chancellor, Academic (ex officio);
- (vi) three academic staff members from Sydney Campus – nominated by the Head of Campus and approved by the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor;
- (vii) three academic staff members from Fremantle Campus – nominated by the Head of the Campus and approved by the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor;
- (viii) the Pro Vice Chancellor, International (or delegate)
- (ix) the Pro Vice Chancellor Research (or delegate);
- (x) one staff member from the Quality Management Office; and
- (xi) one member from the Learning and Teaching Committee.

- 36.4 (Number of meetings) At least six regular meetings of the Unit and Course Accreditation Committee will be held in each University year.
- 36.5 (Quorum) A quorum for any meeting of the Unit and Course Accreditation Committee will be 5 members.
- 36.6 (Participation by telephone/audio visual) Members of the Unit and Course Accreditation Committee may participate in meetings by the use of audio or audio visual facilities and are deemed to be present for the count of the quorum.
- 36.7 (Record of meeting) The Unit and Course Accreditation Committee will keep a record of its resolutions, recommendations and action items.
- 36.8 Other officers and staff members of the University attend meetings of the Unit and Course Accreditation Committee at the invitation of the chair.
- 36.9 The Unit and Course Accreditation Committee acts as an advisory body to the Vice Chancellor through the Academic Council and is responsible for matters including (but not limited to):
- (i) reviewing and recommending (in relation to academic content and standards) the approval and re-accreditation of new courses and the amendment of existing courses that will significantly affect existing academic and/or resourcing arrangements;
 - (ii) recommending the re-accreditation of existing courses following cyclic review;
 - (iii) reviewing and recommending (in relation to academic content and standards) the approval of new units and major amendments to existing units;
 - (iv) reviewing and monitoring existing units and courses, including in relation to course design, resourcing and currency;
 - (v) ensuring that the structure and requirement of units and courses are consistent with any award to which they lead;
 - (vi) ensuring that the methods of course delivery are appropriate in achieving the purpose of the course or unit;
 - (vii) ensuring that units and courses, and any award to which they lead, are consistent with and meet relevant standards and any professional accreditation or professional recognition requirements; and
 - (viii) ensuring that units and courses are in furtherance of the University objects.
- 36.10 (Process) With respect to:
- (i) approval of a new course or unit;
 - (ii) changes to an existing course or unit;
 - (iii) monitoring, review and re-accreditation of an existing course or unit; or

63 Changes to Core Curriculum

63.1 Any changes or amendments to the Core Curriculum shall only take effect if approved by a resolution carried by a two-thirds majority of the Trustees.

Division 10 – Research Institutes and Centres

64 Research Institutes

- 64.1 A Research Institute of the University is established by the Board of Directors on recommendation from the Vice Chancellor.
- 64.2 A Research Institute is independent of Campus or Schools and Colleges and operates on a University wide basis.
- 64.3 The purpose of a Research Institute is, among other things, to promote a broad area of research within the University and to provide collaborative and resource sharing opportunities for researchers.
- 64.4 Each Research Institute will be managed by a Director, a position appointed by the Vice Chancellor, and reporting through the Head of Campus (or other officer as may be nominated by the Vice Chancellor) to the Vice Chancellor. The Director is separately accountable and responsible to the Pro Vice Chancellor, Research on all matters delegated to that officer through Statute, policies, practices and procedures.
- 64.5 Each Research Institute will be periodically reviewed for performance and strategic alignment.

65 Research Centres

- 65.1 A Research Centre is established by the Vice Chancellor on recommendation from the Head of Campus (in the instance of a centre that is campus or school based) or from the Pro Vice Chancellor, Research (in the instance of a centre that is a national sub-area of an existing Research Institute), provided such recommendation is endorsed by the Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor.
- 65.2 The organisational location and reporting authority of a Research Centre will be established by the Vice Chancellor.
- 65.3 A Research Centre is a smaller, focussed area of research that may evolve into a Research Institute over time. They may include, but are not limited to:
- (i) location within a School or College and reporting to the Dean;
 - (ii) location on a single campus and reporting to the Head of Campus; and
 - (iii) location within a Research Institute and reporting to the director of that Institute.
- 65.4 A Research Centre will be periodically reviewed for performance and strategic alignment with the University.

Division 11 – Seals of the University

66 Common Seal of the University

66.1 The Secretary of the University has custody of the Common Seal of the University.

67 Use of the Common Seal

67.1 The Common Seal of the University shall be affixed to:

- (i) documents or classes of document which the Board of Directors has authorised to be sealed with the Common Seal; or
- (ii) a document that the Board of Directors has specially authorised to be sealed with the Common Seal.

67.2 Where the Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor believes that a document requires sealing under the Common Seal and:

- (i) the matter to which the document relates is purely formal; or
- (ii) that matter to which the document relates is one of special urgency

the Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor may authorise the use of the Common Seal on that document.

68 Execution without the Common Seal

68.1 The University may execute documents without using a common seal if the document is signed by:

- (i) two directors of the University; or
- (ii) a director and the University Secretary.

69 Reporting execution of documents to the Board of Directors

69.1 Where the Common Seal is affixed to a document under this Statute or where two directors of the University or a director and the University Secretary have signed a document, the execution will be reported to the Board of Directors at the next Board meeting.

70 Testamur Seal of the University

70.1 The Academic Registrar of the University has custody of the Testamur Seal of the University.

70.2 The Testamur Seal shall be affixed to all testamurs of degrees, diplomas or other qualifications granted by the University.
