In the case of ECE, if the student aims to gain recognition as a qualified Early Childhood teacher, a practicum-based unit in ECE is required.

Those students who complete a specialisation that meets the requirements for a particular teaching qualification will have their transcript annotated to provide official recognition that requirements have been met. Students will not receive a separate document or testamur.

ACCREDITATION
Catholic students may include sufficient studies in Theology and Religious Education to satisfy the academic requirements of Accreditation, as stipulated by the Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia to teach Religious Education in a Catholic school.

Certain units are approved by the Catholic Education Office [CEO] for accumulation towards the requirements of Accreditation. If students have any doubt about the required pattern of RE and Theology units, advice should be sought from the CEO.

TUITION COSTS
The Bachelor of Education (Conversion) is considered an undergraduate course and hence unit fees are charged at the undergraduate rate.
