

Master of Religious Education

UNDA Course Code 5056
Not available for International Students
2010

INTRODUCTION

The postgraduate courses in Religious Education provide a specialised program for those wishing to develop their religious education skills and qualifications. It is suited to those in leadership positions and teachers working in the area of Religious Education. These programs are offered in flexible mode.

MASTER OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The specialist Master of Religious Education degree is the choice of those who wish to develop their skills as leaders of religious education in schools and is designed to provide a solid theological and educational grounding for the religious educator and school leader.

The structure of this degree allows students maximum freedom through a wide choice of electives while at the same time, ensures that relevant core material is covered. For example, if a student wishes to study predominantly theology or religious education in their degree, it is possible to complete 6 units in either of these disciplines.

Students are required to complete 8 units of study consisting of:

Two Core Religious Education Units

Critical Issues in RE
Critical Issues in RE 2

Two Core Units from Theology

Christology: Mystery of Christ II
Church and Sacraments: Mystery of Christ IV

Four Elective choices from Religious Education or Theology in consultation with the course coordinator

(For a current list of unit offerings in all of these areas, contact the School of Education).

Units available for external study

Christian Formation in Education
