The Spirituality of Icons

You are invited to join a class with Dr Angela McCarthy on Icons.

Dr McCarthy lectures in the School of Philosophy and Theology at The University of Notre Dame Australia's, Fremantle Campus. She has a keen interest in the artistic tradition of the Catholic Church as a means by which we enter into, and express, our relationship with God.

In nurturing our understanding of Notre Dame (Our Lady) we can ponder the mystery of God.

Join this series of three Wednesday classes and enter into the spirituality and practice of producing icons.

- Wednesday 26 Nov | 7.30pm – 9pm | Room 5/113
- Wednesday 3 Dec | 7.30pm – 9pm | Room 5/113
- Wednesday 10 Dec | 7.30pm – 9pm | Room 5/113

Each evening will offer half-an-hour of considering icons which will be followed by one hour spent in the practice of producing your own icon. The location for each week is in the P&O Hotel on the corner of Mouat and High Streets.

The cost is $30 and includes all materials. Places are limited and you will need to register as soon as possible to save your place in this series.
