Dear Friends

Your investment in the future of Notre Dame has helped us to grow and develop to where we are today. The support of the Church, dedicated staff, assistance of government and the generous gifts of our benefactors, has enabled the University to flourish.

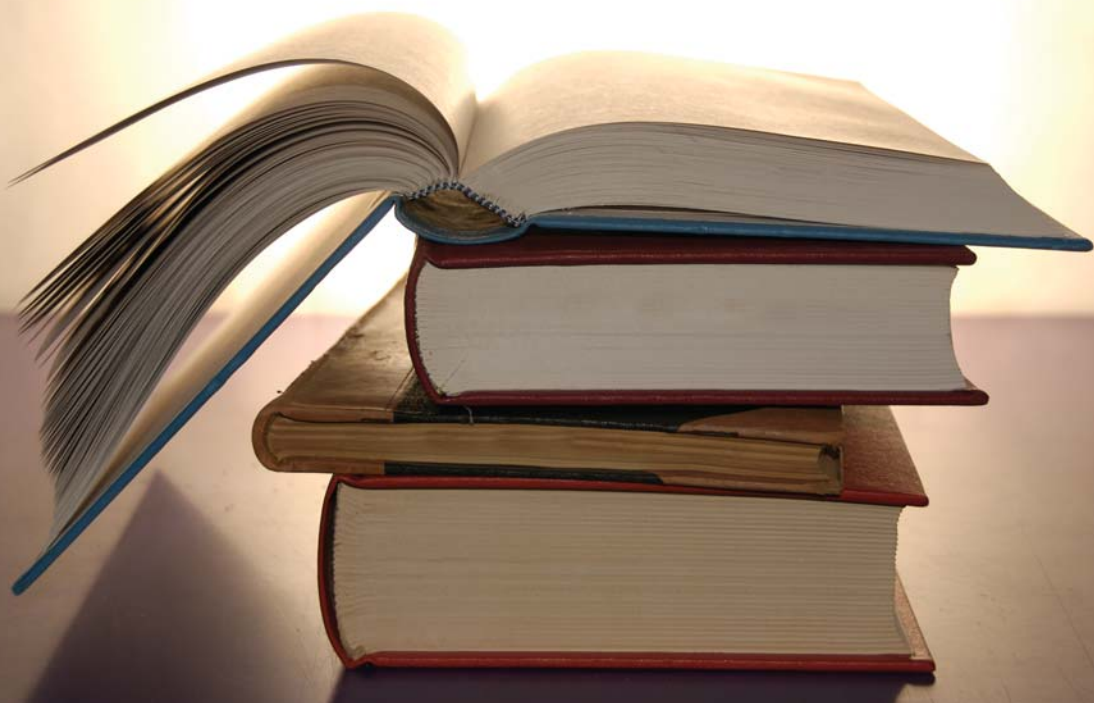

This year, our Annual Appeal focuses on three of the University's priority areas: building research capacity, increasing opportunities for students through the Futures Scholarship Fund, and capital infrastructure and development.

I welcome you to be part of Notre Dame's ongoing success in achieving excellence in its higher education programs. We count on your support to help us open doors and provide opportunities to our students.

Yours sincerely

Futures Scholarship Fund

Without question, a scholarship can change a student's life.

Fundraising for scholarships, bursaries and awards continues to be a priority for Notre Dame.

Scholarships play a vital role in opening doors to enable talented students to study, irrespective of their ability to afford fees or support themselves through their studies.

A gift to the Futures Scholarship Fund will be placed in the endowment fund to create new opportunities for students now and for generations to come. Your generosity will be a wonderful source of encouragement to our students.

Research Fund

We invite you to help us to play a leading role in addressing many of the complex issues that face the world today.

The University has expanded its research capacity by developing a number of new research institutes: the Nulungu Centre for Indigenous Studies in Broome; the Centre for Faith, Ethics and Society in Sydney; and the Institute for Health and Rehabilitation Research in Fremantle.

Gifts to this fund will be put to a variety of uses for both staff and student research initiatives.

We have the mind power and the will power to tackle important research issues, however we also need funding to augment our programs.

Unrestricted Fund

Support from our community helps us to build for the future.

Gifts to the Unrestricted Fund will allow the growth required to continue our vital role of high-level teaching, scholarship and research.

Your unrestricted financial gifts will help us to offset our capital costs and ensure that our new facilities match the existing facilities in terms of quality, utility and beauty.

We hope you will help us to build on our outstanding heritage of excellence and ensure that we continue to generate lasting value to individuals, professions and the wider community for many years to come.

I wish to support Notre Dame's Annual Appeal 2010.
