Bachelor of Commerce
UNDA Course Code 3058 – CRICOS Code 019595A

Major: Human Resource Management

The School of Business combines practical skills with individually focused tuition ensuring students are ready to thrive in the workplace. Some of the key features of this degree include:

- Accreditation with the Australian Human Resource Institute
- Wide range of HR and business units
- Case study and team based learning
- Internships linked to Major
- Regular guest speakers
- Experienced lecturers

Course Duration:
The Bachelor of Commerce (Major: Human Resource Management) generally takes three years to complete on a full-time basis. It is also available on a part-time basis (Domestic students only).

Course Structure:
Core Curriculum – The Logos Programme
- Logos I
- Logos II
- Logos III

Year One (Foundation Units)
- Economics
- Quantitative Methods for Business
- Business Communication
- Business Information Technology
- Accounting for Business
- Principles of Marketing
- Principles of Management
- Business Law

Year Two & Year Three
- Employment Relations
- Principles of Human Resource Management
- Human Resource Development
- Change Management
- Human Resource Policy
- Strategic Workforce Issues
- Leadership: Theory and Practice
- Psychology of Work
- Business Internship

Plus four general electives to be chosen by the student and undertaken across years two and/or three.

Mode of Study and Assessment:
This course is only offered in internal mode. Students will be provided with a copy of a Unit Outline for each unit in a given semester. This outline will provide the assessment method for the unit, which may include: assignments, essays, presentations, performances, practicum, internships, placements, research papers, theses, tests, and examinations.

Admission Requirements:
For detailed information regarding admission requirements please refer to the Notre Dame website: www.nd.edu.au/prospectus

Career Opportunities:
Human resource management is about the human side of business. HR professionals can practice in private, public and not-for-profit organisations, in areas such as internal employee relations, personnel management and recruitment.

Major: Management

The School of Business combines practical skills with individual focused tuition ensuring students are ready to thrive in the workplace. Some of the key features of this degree include:

- Eligibility to join the Australian Institute of Management (AIM)
- Case study and team based learning
- Internships ensure theory is put into practice
- Regular guest speakers
- Experienced lecturers

Course Duration:
The Bachelor of Commerce (Major: Management) generally takes three years to complete on a full-time basis. It is also available on a part-time basis (Domestic students only).

Course Structure:
Core Curriculum – The Logos Programme
- Logos I
- Logos II
- Logos III

Year One (Foundation Units)
- Accounting for Business
- Business Communication
- Business Information Technology
- Business Law
- Economics
- Principles of Management
- Principles of Marketing
- Quantitative Methods for Business

Year Two & Year Three
- Principles of Human Resource Management
- Strategic Management
- Change Management
- Leadership: Theory and Practice
- Psychology of Work
- Business Internship

Plus two additional management electives to be selected from:
- Business to Business
- Employment Relations
- Human Resource Development
- Company Law
- Employment Law
- Mediation and Dispute Resolution
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Human Resource Policy
- Strategic Workforce Issues

Plus six general electives to be chosen by student and undertaken across years two and/or three.

Mode of Study and Assessment:
This course is only offered in internal mode. Students will be provided with a copy of a Unit Outline for each unit in a given semester. This outline will provide the assessment method for the unit, which may include: assignments, essays, presentations, performances, practicum, internships, placements, research papers, theses, tests, and examinations.

Admission Requirements:
For detailed information regarding admission requirements please refer to the Notre Dame website: www.nd.edu.au/prospectus

Career Opportunities:
Career options include: Management consultancy, management development programs, project management and customer and client relations.