To Prosecute or Not: The Role of the Director of Public Prosecutions

Tuesday 16 August 2016 | 6-7pm followed by refreshments

Mr Joe McGrath SC is a graduate of the University of Western Australia, Australian National University and the London School of Economics.

He was appointed to the position of Director of Public Prosecutions for Western Australia in February 2010. Formerly a Senior Assistant Director at the Commonwealth DPP, he was appointed a Senior Counsel in 2011.

From 2001 until his appointment as the DPP, he practised as a barrister at Francis Burt Chambers in a wide range of areas including civil, public law and criminal law. He was counsel assisting both the Royal Commission into the Finance Broking Industry and the Royal Commission into the Western Australian Police, and is a former Commissioner of the Law Reform Commission of Western Australia.

As the Director he regularly appears as counsel in both the Court of Appeal and High Court.

Venue: The University of Notre Dame Australia
Michael Keating Room (ND42) Cnr Cliff & High Streets, Fremantle

RSVP: Pam Meehan on 9433 0741 or email pam.meehan@nd.edu.au

The School of Law’s Eminent Speakers Series involves recognised experts speaking on contemporary legal and professional matters. Lectures presented as part of the series are free of charge and are open to members of the School of Law, the University and the general public.